{mosgoogle no} Les Turvey of L T Custom Homes has been a regular contributor to the website in the past, with tons of useful information, particularly for the owner builder interested in building his or her own home.

Based in Midrand at present, Les and his L T Custom Homes team are now available to build anywhere in South Africa.

For more info about L T Custom Homes and links to Les's previous building projects and very useful schedules of building costs, please click here.

Also available is Les's Building CV with more fine examples of his work.

Below are just some of the beautiful and interesting features Les has incorporated into the homes he has built.
